how can the god of the old testament be the same god of the new testament with an evolutionary lens there is a reasonable answer to this question at every stage of development we can have an inspired understanding of the divine but our perception will be configured by our worldview or value system like transparencies on an overhead projector in this book we overlay two valuable tools the model of the documentary hypothesis and the model of spiral dynamics enabling us to view the god of the hebrew scriptures from an integral perspective this book invites you to make peace with the god of the old testament while honoring the ancients it helps you release the dogma of religion and gives space for you to evolve your understanding of god and awaken to an integral acceptance of the inevitable and necessary stages of human development

this book gives an overview of ways to work as a management consultant including relationships with clients ethics pricing contracts and some basic tools for delivering consulting services this book was written for those who want to work in this area for existing consultants and also for managers and buyers of management consulting services quotes from the book this is the book i wish i could have read myself about 30 years ago when i first started my career as a young management consultant when young people are asked about their dream job management consulting is often high on the list when i was asked by the managing partner of the consulting firm what kind of consultant i wanted to become my reply was honest surprise are there really different kinds what is the most important skill for a leader or manager to master i would say it is the decision making process perhaps the most important strategic decision in management consulting is how to price your services both how much you charge and what for yes i claim that to understand the internal and interpersonal politics of any organization is a necessary prerequisite for a good management consultant i am sure that many organisational problems are based more on politics than on policies it will draw significant resources away into internal disintegration and fights rather than freeing the same energy for external opportunities and tasks have to either grow or die growth and contribution fulfill us progress makes us happy but if we don t stop believing we are always behind we are going to keep feeling hopeless empty and desperate no matter how successful we are or how much we achieve robin williams was an example of a huge talent and achievements but he was fighting with depression at the age of 63 he committed suicide that is the terrible truth about depression it is a disease that can rob you of your perspective on life and it often co exists with substance misuse or addiction depression is not just being sad and it s not a character weakness or personal failing it is a disease that can impact all facets of one s life it can make you think that life is not worth living because of public misperceptions of the disease people with depression often try to conceal their disease until that too becomes too much to bear in today s world we are encouraged to use any form of distraction outside of ourselves which initially gives us temporary a higher self esteem such as shopping work beauty cosmetics industry alcohol drugs adrenaline food toxic and abusive love relations gambling video gaming internet etc and releases endorphins and dopamine in the brain creating pleasurable sensations that become addictive this creates a vicious circle and reinforces the belief that we need to be like somebody else or to do something else that we are not in order to be accepted comparing yourself to others will only drain your energy and deprive your joy everyone has a different path and different timing in life different values and beliefs about the world my advice is to trust the timing of your life trust that every experience taught you something that you need to know right now and you are exactly where you need to be the book your destiny own it will teach you how to identify the things that blocked you will make you understand why people do what they do and it will teach you how to create belief systems that support your growth and lead you to the life that you want

are you a cultural creative do you dislike all the emphasis in modern culture on success and making it on getting and spending on wealth and luxury goods do you care deeply about the destruction of the environment and would pay higher taxes or prices to clean it up and to stop global warming are you unhappy with both the left and the right in politics and want to find a new way that does not simply steer a middle course in this landmark book sociologist paul h ray and psychologist sherry ruth anderson draw upon thirteen years of survey research studies on more than 100 000 americans plus more than 100 focus groups and dozens of in depth interviews they reveal who the cultural creatives are and the fascinating story of their emergence over the last generation using vivid examples and engaging personal stories to describe their distinctive values and lifestyles the cultural creatives care deeply about ecology and saving the planet about relationships peace and social justice about self actualization spirituality and self expression surprisingly they are both inner directed and socially concerned they re activists volunteers and contributors to good causes more often than other americans but because they ve been so invisible they are astonished to find out how many others share both their values and their way of life once they realize their numbers their impact on america promises to be enormous shaping a new agenda for the twenty first century what makes the appearance of the cultural creatives especially timely is that our civilization is in the midst of an epochal change caught between globalization accelerating technologies and adeteriorating planetary ecology a creative minority can have enormous leverage to carry us into a new renaissance instead of a disastrous fall the book ends with a number of maps for the remarkable journey that our civilization is embarked upon initiations evolutionary models scenarios and the elements of a new mythos for our time the cultural creatives offers a more hopeful future and prepares us all for a transition to a new saner and wiser culture
